

CENTRE FOR CHILD HONOURING

Board of Directors

RAFFI CAVOUKIAN, C.M., O.B.C.

Singer, author, founder of Child Honouring. Known to millions simply as Raffi, a renowned Canadian songwriter and performer. A global troubadour with two honorary degrees, the Order of Canada and the UN's Earth Achievement Award. Member of the Council of Human Development and the Club of Budapest.

CHARLES HOLMES

Leadership facilitator and educator with 20-plus years of experience. Passionate about creating meaningful dialogue among groups with diverse opinions. Organizer for the 2009 Connecting for Change Dialogue – a key part of the Vancouver Peace Summit: Nobel Laureates in Dialogue.

PHILIP J. LANDRIGAN, MD, MSc, FAAP

Pediatrician and international leader in public health, Dr Landrigan is the Ethel H. Wise Professor and Chairman for the Department of Community and Preventive Medicine and Professor of Pediatrics at Mount Sinai School of Medicine, and Director of the Children Environmental Health Center, New York.

KAREN KRAFT SLOAN

Member of Parliament from 1993 to 2004, a leader in the National Children's Caucus, environmental awareness and championing sustainability. Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister of the Environment from 1996 to 1998. Appointed Canada's Ambassador for the Environment in 2005.

EAMON MURPHY

Managing partner of the law firm Clement, Murphy & Woodward and former chair of a Salt Spring Island daycare. Father of two young children.

ERIN PORTER

Principal of Salt Spring Centre School, mother of three children. With a Masters in Elementary Education, Erin teaches primary and a Montessori math program along with her principal duties.

BERT SIMPSON

Senior Associate, Troubadour Music. Formerly a primary teacher and consultant in inner-city Toronto schools, involved with Raffi and his music since 1976. Current work includes communications, marketing, contracts, and creative development.

JUDI WILSON

Administrative Assistant, Troubadour Music for the past eight years. Roots of Empathy facilitator, school secretary on Mayne Island, BC.