The World We Love
Words and Music by Raffi and Michael Creber

Moderately, with a lilt

chorus

Here's to the world we love,

Blue skies and ponies and children at play.

Copyright © 1994 Homeland Publishing (SOCAN), a division of Troubadour Records Ltd.
International Copyright Secured. All Rights Reserved. Used by Permission.
Earth below, stars above,

God bless it every day.

1. Mist covered mountains that welcome the sun,

Buds on the branches, mornings begun.
Dew drops and birdsies just starting to sing,

Praise for the brand new day.

chorus

Here's to the world we love,

Blue skies and ponies and children at play.
Earth below, stars above, God bless it every day.

Additional lyrics

2. Praise to the farmer workin' the fields,
   Seedling to harvest food for our meals,
   Mamas and papas, and hearts filled with love
   For each and every day.
   (chorus)

3. Here's to the rivers that run wild and free,
   The pull of the tides, the rush of the sea.
   Gold crimson sunsets to color our dreams
   In each and every day.
   (chorus)