

Praise for Dog on the Floor - Raffi's new CD

NPR, All Songs Considered

Essential albums of the week “from an artist that a lot of people love...it’s part of their DNA.....whimsical children’s sing-alongs.”

Geek Dad

“Doggedly relevant... Raffi flexes his muscle as the world’s best-selling children’s entertainer. With four-plus decades spent evolving from local personality to worldwide phenomenon, Raffi sounds genial and comforting...”

Phil’s Picks

“Every family’s best musical friend... another surefire addition to any critic’s list of the year’s top new family music albums.”

MamaTomoMama

“Features really great music for kids and includes some old favourites, like Mary Had a Little Lamb and Here Comes the Sun as well as a whole host of new songs.”

Red Tricycle

“All about nurturing imagination and encouraging learning.”

The Bump Club and Beyond

“There’s nothing better than a good old-fashioned singalong. With something for kids of all ages, this Summer Road Trip Playlist is bound to keep the whole family upbeat and entertained.”

Movie Mom

“It’s always great news when there’s a new CD from Raffi, the beloved troubadour whose music has delighted families for decades, making him the perennial best-selling children’s entertainer.”

Motherhood Moment

“This album incorporates fun, imagination, and learning, including play and relationships. Raffi’s style invites kids to sing along with his relatable lyrics and catchy tunes, simple but not boring.”

Guru Guru

“Lucky for our kids, Raffi is still creating amazing music, such as his newest album Dog on the Floor, which features heartwarming songs about family, pets, love, kindness, and more.”