

Where We All Belong - Ballad

(Inspired by the Earth Charter)

In this world of wonder
circle where we all belong
Voice of a thousand tribes
circle where we all belong ... where we all belong
Pulse of the human heart
circle where we all belong ... where we all belong
Circle where we all are free
circle where we all belong ... where we all belong ... where we all belong ... where we all belong.

Every creature land and sea, every flower every tree
makes a circle, where we all belong.
Every bird every cloud, every raindrop that falls
makes a circle, where we all belong.
Every turn of the tide, every ocean wave
makes a circle, where we all belong.
Every breeze that blows, every grain of sand makes a circle in the sun, where we all belong.

In this world of wonder
circle where we all belong
Voice of a thousand tribes
circle where we all belong ... where we all belong
Pulse of the human heart
circle where we all belong ... where we all belong
Circle where we all are free
belong ... where we all belong.
